

AIRCRAFT MODIFICATIONS

What do insurance companies consider a “major modification” to an aircraft?

Any modification that requires a Supplemental Type Certificate (STC) or changes the flying characteristics of the aircraft is considered a major modification. →